- 23 (b) MAPS AND DESCRIPTIONS.—As soon as prac-24 ticable after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 25 Secretary shall file a map and a boundary description of

19

20

- 1 each area designated as wilderness by this section with
- 2 the Committee on Natural Resources of the House of Rep-
- 3 resentatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural
- 4 Resources of the Senate. Each map and boundary descrip-
- 5 tion shall have the same force and effect as if included
- 6 in this Act, except that the Secretary may correct clerical
- 7 and typographical errors in the map or boundary descrip-
- 8 tion. The maps and boundary descriptions shall be on file
- 9 and available for public inspection in the Office of the Di-
- 10 rector of the Bureau of Land Management, Department
- 11 of the Interior, and in the Office of the Chief of the Forest
- 12 Service, Department of Agriculture, as appropriate.
- 13 (c) STATE AND PRIVATE LANDS.—Lands within the
- 14 exterior boundaries of any wilderness area designated
- 15 under this section that are owned by the State of Colorado
- 16 or by a private entity shall be included within such wilder-
- 17 ness area if such lands are acquired by the United States.
- 18 Such lands may be acquired by the United States only
- 19 as provided in the Wilderness Act (16 U.S.C. 1131 et
- 20 seq.).

21 SEC. 3. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.

- 22 (a) In General.—Subject to valid existing rights,
- 23 lands designated as wilderness by this Act shall be man-
- 24 aged by the Secretary in accordance with the Wilderness
- 25 Act (16 U.S.C. 1131 et seq.) and this Act, except that,

- 1 with respect to any wilderness areas designated by this
- 2 Act, any reference in the Wilderness Act to the effective
- 3 date of the Wilderness Act shall be deemed to be a ref-
- 4 erence to the date of enactment of this Act.
- 5 (b) Grazing.—Grazing of livestock in wilderness
- 6 areas designated by this Act shall be administered in ac-
- 7 cordance with the provisions of section 4(d)(4) of the Wil-
- 8 derness Act (16 U.S.C. 1133(d)(4)), as further inter-
- 9 preted by section 108 of Public Law 96–560, and the
- 10 guidelines set forth in Appendix A of House Report 101–
- 11 405 of the 101st Congress.
- 12 (c) State Jurisdiction.—As provided in section
- 13 4(d)(7) of the Wilderness Act (16 U.S.C. 1133(d)(7)),
- 14 nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting the ju-
- 15 risdiction or responsibilities of the State of Colorado with
- 16 respect to wildlife and fish in Colorado.
- 17 (d) Water.—
- 18 (1) In general.—With respect to each wilder-
- 19 ness and potential wilderness area designated by this
- Act, the Secretary shall obtain and exercise any
- 21 water rights required to fulfill the purposes of the
- 22 wilderness in accordance with the following provi-
- 23 sions:
- 24 (A) Such water rights shall be appro-
- priated, adjudicated, changed, and administered

pursuant to the procedural requirements and priority system of the laws of the State of Colorado.

- (B) The purposes and other substantive characteristics of such water rights shall be established pursuant to State law, except that the Secretary is specifically authorized to appropriate water under this Act exclusively for the purpose of maintaining groundwater levels, surface water levels, and streamflows on, across, and under the wilderness in order to accomplish the purposes of the wilderness and to protect wilderness uses.
- (C) Such water rights shall be established and used without interfering with any exercise of a water right in existence on the date of the enactment of this Act for a non-Federal purpose.
- (2) PROTECTING RIGHTS.—The Secretary and all other officers of the United States shall take steps necessary to protect the rights established under paragraph (1), including the filing by the Secretary of a claim for the quantification of such rights in any present or future appropriate stream adjudication in the courts of the State of Colorado

- in which the United States is or may be joined and which is conducted in accordance with section 208 of the Department of Justice Appropriation Act, 1953 (43 U.S.C. 666; commonly known as the McCarran Amendment).
  - (3) Relinquishment or reduction.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed as a relinquishment or reduction of any water rights reserved or appropriated by the United States in the State of Colorado on or before the date of the enactment of this Act.
  - (4) Water resource facility.—With respect to each wilderness and potential wilderness area designated by this Act, notwithstanding any other provision of law, on and after the date of the enactment of this Act, neither the President nor any other officer, employee, or agent of the United States shall fund, assist, authorize, or issue a license or permit for development of any new irrigation and pumping facility, reservoir, water conservation work, aqueduct, canal, ditch, pipeline, well, hydropower project, transmission, other ancillary facility, or other water diversion, storage, or carriage structure.
  - (e) Aerial Navigation Training Exercises.—

- 1 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Colorado Army Na-2 tional Guard, through the High-Altitude Army Na-3 tional Guard Aviation Training Site, may conduct 4 aerial navigation training maneuver exercises over 5 and upon the lands designated as potential wilder-6 ness by this Act in a manner—
  - (A) consistent with the memorandum of understanding dated August 4, 1987, among the Colorado Army National Guard, the Bureau of Land Management, and the Forest Service; and
  - (B) minimizing the impact to wilderness character, natural features, and a visitor's sense of solitude.
  - (2) Review of the memorandum of understanding referred to in paragraph (1)(A) shall review the memorandum and associated annual operating plan not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter so long as the Colorado Army National Guard conducts activity described in paragraph (1). The review shall include consideration of alternative locations for activities identified in the memorandum of understanding. Such alternative locations must be over

- 1 and upon National Forest System lands and lands 2 administered by the Bureau of Land Management, 3 other than lands designated as wilderness or as po-4 tential wilderness.
- (3) Modification of the memorandum of 6 UNDERSTANDING.—The memorandum of under-7 standing referred to in paragraph (1)(A) may be 8 modified, subject to the agreement of all parties 9 thereto, if the Colorado Army National Guard, in 10 consultation with the Bureau of Land Management and the Forest Service, identifies an alternative loca-12 tion as described in paragraph (2) that meets its 13 aerial training needs.

(f) Potential Wilderness Designations.—

- (1) In general.—The following lands are designated as potential wilderness areas:
  - (A) Certain lands managed by the Glenwood Springs Field Office or located in the White River National Forest which comprise approximately 20,843 acres, as generally depicted on a map titled "Deep Creek Proposed Wilderness Area", dated September 17, 2007, which shall be known as the Deep Creek Wilderness.

- 1 (B) Certain lands managed by the Glen2 wood Springs Field Office which comprise ap3 proximately 15,679 acres, as generally depicted
  4 on a map titled "Pisgah Mountain Proposed
  5 Wilderness Area", dated September 17, 2007,
  6 which shall be known as the Pisgah Mountain
  7 Wilderness.
  - (2) Designation as wilderness.—Lands described in paragraph (1) shall be designated as wilderness upon the Secretary publishing in the Federal Register a notice that all nonconforming uses of those lands provided for under subsection (e) that would be prohibited in wilderness by the Wilderness Act have ceased. Such publication in the Federal Register by the Secretary and subsequent designation as wilderness shall occur as the nonconforming use ceases in any of the individual areas identified and shall not be dependent on cessation of the nonconforming uses in all the potential wilderness areas identified.
  - (3) Management.—Except for activities provided for under subsection (e), lands described in paragraph (1) shall be managed by the Secretary in accordance with the Wilderness Act as wilderness

- 1 until those lands are designated as wilderness under
- 2 this subsection.
